COMMENTS:

This bill would require the San Diego Gas and Electric (SDG&E) Company to identify customers that paid excess energy costs and to notify the customers of the excess costs. This bill would also require SDG&E to develop a plan to reimburse customers for those excess costs.

The April 22, 2002, amendments deleted the credit that would have allowed a taxpayer to claim a credit against income tax for excess energy costs. As a result, this bill no longer impacts the department's programs and operations. The department's analysis of the bill as introduced February 22, 2002, no longer applies.
